The McKenzie River

The McKenzie River is one of western Oregon's most beautiful streams as well as one of the region's most popular whitewater rafting trips. Flowing through the McKenzie Valley from its headwaters high in the cascades at Clear Lake, the McKenzie is a swift, spirited river. Float with the McKenzie's lively current and you may feel as if you're flying over the riverbed — the water is that clear.

Thick fir forests, mild yet enjoyable whitewater, and easy accessibility are a few of the river's other charms.

Our McKenzie two day trips typically launch at Olallie boat ramp. We encounter a number of class III rapids during our trip, but most rapids are milder, class II drops. Although most of the McKenzie's rapids are relatively mild, the river's steep and swift flow creates a more exciting ride the class II rating would suggest.

Besides lively whitewater, a few of the McKenzie's other highlights are the river's extraordinarily clear water, the beautiful forest scenery encountered, and the excellent fishing available here.

Where and When to Meet

We will meet at 10:00 AM the day of your trip at Forest Glen Boat Landing. We'll make our shuttle arrangements here, before going to the launch site.

Our guides establish a central kitchen and social area, and trip members select spots in the surrounding area to pitch a tent.

Gratuities

Our guests sometimes ask whether it is appropriate to tip the guides. Tipping is optional, but if your guides did a great job then feel free to thank them with a gratuity. The amount is up to you, but tips between 8% and 20% of trip cost are typical. Gratuities are customarily presented to the Lead Guide, and will be shared equally among all guides on your trip.

What to Bring

Please come to the river prepared for all possible weather conditions. The weather in the river canyons of the Northwest is often different from that in surrounding areas, so you won't really know how it will be until you get there. At that time, you may decide that some of the items listed here are not needed; but you need to have them along just in case! In addition, McKenzie River water is usually quite cool, even on a hot day. So please pay close attention to the following information and checklists, and help to insure your enjoyment of your vacation by bringing along the proper clothing.

What to wear

Spring trips: We recommend that guests on our April, May and early June trips plan to wear a wetsuit while on the river. Wetsuits may be rented directly from O.R.E., and may also be available at windsurf or dive shops in your area.

O.R.E. rents wetsuit/splash jacket sets ($5 per day) in sizes to accommodate persons from 4'8" and 85 pounds to 6'4" and 240 pounds. Also included are wetsuit shoes (men's sizes 5 to 12). Our wetsuits are a 1/8" thick, one-piece "farmer john" style which fully cover the legs and torso but which leave the arms free. The splash jacket helps to protect your arms and torso from the cold water, and may be worn with a sweater or jacket underneath if needed for extra warmth.

Reservations and advance payment are required for O.R.E. rental gear. To place a reservation for a wetsuit/splash jacket set please call our office, at 800-827-1358, at least 48 hours in advance.

Summer trips: Wetsuits are usually not needed. But be sure to bring along warm clothing just in case the weather is cooler than anticipated.

Clothing tips: The best clothing is that which retains your body heat while wet, or one that dries quickly. Modern high-tech synthetic fabrics like Polypropylene, Capeline, and Polyester fleece do both, and are readily available at stores like REI. Polyester fleece is increasingly available, as well, at large department stores. (Just be sure to look for polyester fleece, not cotton fleece.) But if you don't want to spend a lot on a rafting wardrobe look for wool clothes, which provide some warmth even when wet. Thrift stores and military surplus stores are good places to find inexpensive wool clothes. On all but the hottest days you should avoid wearing cotton clothing while on the river. When wet, cotton sucks warmth from your body at an amazing rate. (An exception to the "no cotton" rule: cotton shorts may be worn over a wetsuit to reduce slippage while sitting on a raft.)

Camping gear: O.R.E. offers camping equipment for rent to those who do not own or do not wish to transport this gear. High quality, two-person backpacking style tents are available for $20 per tent per trip. Sleep kits (Polarguard sleeping bag, cotton liner, self-inflating sleep pad, and ground cloth) are also available for $20 per person per trip. To place a reservation for a tent or sleep kit please call our office at 1-800-827-1358.
